
International Applicants

Welcome

at the web site of Information Week of Charles University 2016. Would you like to study at Charles University? Aren't you sure what study programmes will be provided at CU in 2016/2017? Then the event of Information Week is just for you!

First we published here a short description of an admission criteria. As Charles University doesn't have one unified application deadline for its study programmes in English we put the list of all study programs with an application deadlines here as well. For more information on an application process please contact directly one of CU faculties – relevant contacts and links are published at the brochure “Bachelor's and Master's Programs”.

Do not hesitate to ask us any question related: ipsc@ruk.cuni.cz (type INFOWEEK to subject of the message).
