Theatre Na Maninách offers a wide selection of plays. Since October 2018, seven productions of their own have been added to the repertoire (Laskonky, Na dotek, Slečna Julie, Hra se smrtí, Zatmění, Zrada, Žena obecná).

The repertoire has also been enriched by cooperation with the Drama Studio Bouře, Indigo company and stand-up comedies, concerts, and a talk show by Josef Klíma – Labyrinth. There are also charity performances to help those in need.

On the stages of Theatre Na Maninách, you can see, for example, Pavel Bařek, Otakar Brousek, Ilona Svobodová, Nela Boudová, Jitka Čvančarová, Jitka Asterová, Jitka Jeřková, Anna Stropnická, Ivana Jirešová, Jan Révai, Robert Jaškóv, Duřan Sitek, Michal Dlouhý, and many others.

Theatre Na Maninách is located in the “Domovina Culture House”. The premises were built between 1919 and 1922 according to the designs of architects Otta V. Máci and Karel Rořtík. From 1922 to 1995, it housed the Domovina cinema. In the summer of 2018, KV Art Production leased the place and began to renovate it, and in October 2018, Theatre Na Maninách commenced operations. The hall can accommodate 400 visitors (20 chairs can be added). Visitors can have refreshments in the theatre bar and use barrier-free access.

You can view the Theatre Na Maninách programme and tickets at Collosseum ticket and conveniently purchase them online.
