
UniCredit Bank

Benefits for our employees at UniCredit Bank

Dear colleagues,

We would like to inform you that, based on our cooperation with Unicredit Bank, you have the opportunity to use the bank's advantageous products.

You can use this programme if you are from:

the Faculty of Mathematics and Physics, CERGE, the Faculty of Social Sciences, the Faculty of Education, the 1st Faculty of Medicine, the Faculty of Science, the Rectorate, Dormitories and Canteens, the Faculty of Humanities, the Hussite Theological Faculty, the Faculty of Pharmacy, and the Institute for Language and Preparatory Studies

You can take advantage of the following benefits:

As of 2 January 2023, the offer is valid as follows (we always update the offer on a semi-annual basis):

Reward for opening an account in the amount of 2% of your wages, which a client has sent to this new account. The maximum reward amount is CZK 500 per month, so a client can receive up to CZK 6,000 per year.

If the client decides to use other preferential products of the bank (mortgage or consumer loan, investments, life insurance) within one year of opening the current account, the bank extends the reward payment period by another twelve months. In total, it is possible to receive a reward of up to CZK 12,000 for 24 months.

A savings account with an interest rate of 6% p.a. is automatically a part of each newly opened account up to a deposit of CZK 500,000. The rate is currently guaranteed until 30 June 2023.

Terms and conditions of the benefits:

- o Open an account at UCB
- o Deposit wages to this account
- o Make three transactions with the payment card each month

This offer is valid until 30 June 2023.

Who can receive a reward of 2% of their wages:

A reward of 2% of wages can be obtained by new clients or existing clients of the bank who have not yet sent their wages to UniCredit Bank (provided that the wages are redirected to an account at UniCredit Bank).

Employees who already have an account with UniCredit Bank and send their wages to it can use the offer of preferential products – loans and investments.
