Tip for a gift that originated right at Charles University

We offer CU employees and members of the CU Alumni Club a 15% discount on new SAIN cosmetic products whose technology was invented by scientists from CU.

Why are SAIN cosmetics unique:

- Produced and patented in the Czech Republic
- Invented at CU
- Thanks to alaptide molecules, the products regenerate and heal the skin very effectively
- You can order free product samples and try the products before purchasing

The complete range of products and references can be found on the web pages of SAIN.

You can find the discount code for discounted prices in the Overview of discount codes.
