

Legal advisory services

Free of charge for all CU students and employees.

My goal is to assist students and employees in navigating the legal aspects of challenging situations. Clients frequently seek consultation on tenancy issues, labor law, or matters related to the residence of foreigners. Legal advisory services includes free legal analysis of your situation and offers possible solutions.

Consultations are available in both Czech and English.

Contact:

	Mgr. et Mgr. Tereza Martincová Legal advisory services are provided remotely. Please send your inquiries to martincova@aktm.cz. While prior reservation is not required, the attorney will respond to your query within a few days. If you need a quicker response, please indicate this in the subject line of your email.
--	--

I studied American Studies at FSV UK and Law at Charles University. As part of my academic journey, I spent two semesters abroad, in Germany and the USA. During my studies, I began working at law offices in Prague. In 2024, I passed the Czech Bar Exam.