
Counselling

All students and staff at Charles University can access support when facing challenging situations.

University-wide counselling services are available at the CU Point.

The CU Point counselling centre is open to students and staff from all faculties and units of Charles University. Most faculties also provide their own counselling services.

You are not alone.

Counselling services at the University are available during working hours.