
Survival Czech: Language Course for Total Beginners

Survival Czech: Language Course for Total Beginners

Czech could be a very complicated language for non-native speakers. Do not worry; we are here to help you through the jungle! If you are interested in learning some basics in Czech, join our online course for total beginners. This course consists of three-part series. Each provides ten lessons focused on common Czech vocabulary, phrases and grammar.

Course Description

The course introduces essential grammatical concepts relating to the language functions, such as verb conjugations in the present tense, noun gender and declension.

Students also acquire basic knowledge about Czech culture.

Aim

By the end of the course, students should be able to share basic personal information, navigate through town and ask for directions, navigate through the supermarket, order and pay for a meal at a restaurant, tell time and make a simple arrangement in Czech.

Timing & Information

The language course has two follow-ups:

Survival Czech: Language Course for Total Beginners (March 17th - 16th April)

Survival Czech 2 (April 21st - May 21st)

Survival Czech 3 (May 26th - June 25th)

2 x 90 mins per week, Tuesdays and Thursdays, from 9.30 - 11.00

Participants

Ph.D. candidates

Registration

Vzdělávací portál: Survival Czech 1 (registration from January 20th)

Vzdělávací portál: Survival Czech 2 (registration from March 9th)

Vzdělávací portál: Survival Czech 3 (registration from April 13th)

Lessons will be held online (ZOOM).

We will send the the link to the registered people before the course begins.

Course material

Čeština Expres e-book

E-books will be ordered by the language centre, because of the lower price for bulk orders.

Contact

Mgr. Petra Kučerová Konupková

petra.kucEROVA.konupkova@ruk.cuni.cz